Reports of the treasurer and secretary were read and the treas-urer also read the financial report of the year. In his report he mentions conducted jointly with the O. P. A. K. that the expenses of the club during the past year have been heavier than in former years, but in spite of this ner, the gift of the Alpha Sigma sothe club has a substantial sum in the treasury to start next season. The scouts would like to have it understood that they are really uppared for sertreasury to start next season. The delegates who attended the recent Plainfield meeting reported the hap-penings. The club now awaits the discovering variations of the daily annual meeting of the Eastern Asso-"good turn."

Whist Tournament. At the home of Stanislas St. Onge recently a whist tournament took place and Joseph Beaudoin and V. Sl-card proved to be the undisputed champions. There was much interest in the tournament and all games were closely contested.

PASTOR REPORTS ON CHURCH S YEAR

Rev. H. J. Wyckoff Covers the Activities of Second Congregational Church in Annual Statement-Makes Recommendations Along Several Lines For the New Year.

The choice of officers for 1916 at the annual meeting of the Second Congregational church on Thursday evening in the church parlors resulted in a general re-election, and the reports submitted showed the year just closed to have been a very successful and submitted showed the year just closed to have been a very successful and prosperous one.

The meeting was preceded by a supper which was served at 6,30 o'clock by the ladies of the Church Improvement society. A large number enjoyed the delicious menu, which was as follows; Roast tenderioin pork, potatoes, cabbage salad, Vienna rolls, jelly, coffee, cake, ice cream.

Rev. Herbert J. Wyckoff, pastor of the church, called the business meeting to order about 7,30 o'clock, and the minutes of the previous meeting were

The next business was the election of officers, the choice being made by acclamation, and the result was a re-election as follows: Clerk, Henry D. Johnson; treasurer, Nathan A. Gibbs; auditor, J. D. Haviland. Henry D. Johnson was re-elected by ballot to serve as deacon for five years.

Instead of electing the outlook committee, it was voted that the chair appoint a committee of three to present nominations for this committee later. Rev. Mr. Wyckoff, the chairman, will appoint the committee in the near

Wyckoff. In part the report was as follows:

The annual report of the minister should cover all the activities of the church during the year; yet the human impossiolility of such complete detail is manifest when we recall that no eye has seen nor pen recorded the greater ministries of the organization; its spiritual service to the community; the strengthening of business integrity; the sweetening of domestic life; the nurture of personal character; these are the incalculable returns on our year's investment of self and strength, of prayer and prayer and purpose, and compared with these maximum profits the lesser things that can be definitely listed and set down in this record appear relatively insignificant. follows: nificant.

The parish has been visited twice furing the year as usual, the minister's wife accompanying him on the econd round.

The O. P. A. K. Discontinued. The O. P. A. K. Discontinued.

The O. P. A. K. club has been discontinued, as its members graduate into the Boy Scout troop. This latter organization, revived with its old rank, No. 1, in February, after four years of waiting for a renewal of interest, is now flourishing. The minister, by necessity continues to serve as scout. cessity, continues to serve as scout-master, but hopes to find a substitute among the younger men of the church. Two assistant scoutmasters, D. S. Hav-iland and W. A. Bottomiey, have been added to the troop which have been added to the troop, which now enrolls 12 boys, of whom one has reached second class rank. The troop uni-formed itself through an entertainment clety, graces troop headquarters. Our scouts would like to have it understood that they are really prepared for ser-

The Camp Fire Girls. The Camp Fire Girls originally nine lost two members by removal from town; but the remaining girls have steadily advanced in rank, several being almost ready for the firemaker's bracelet. This work is best handled in small rather than large groups, and now that the experiment has been tried and found successful here, a second guardian should be found to start a second circle, taking in the other giris 12 and over who would like to join. The idea of the work is to develop in giris the womanly virtues, as the scout sake of our church covenant yows and sake of our church covenant yows and ing almost ready for the firemaker's bracelet. This work is best handled in small rather than large groups, and now that the experiment has been tried programme helps boys to true manliness. If the possibilities of these two kindred organizations were as clear and appealing to parents as to the leaders in charge, we should be over-crowded with applications for member. ship, and it would be less difficult to secure the needed helpers.

The Alpha Sigma Society. The Alpha Sigma society holds its place in the intermediate department of service between the younger and older workers in the church. It boasts 20 "active" members, and in justifica-tion of its boast offers the following list of activities: A share in the church fair; gave a valentine social to the Sunday school; held a food sale and tea; started a Dorcas bag for the United Workers; gave the Boy Scouts a banner, and the Church Improvement a cociaty a dozen specons at the "butchers" society a dozen spoons at the "kitchen shower," and engineered an entertain-ment to raise money, and had 19 meetings in between times. The Church Improvement society, with its younger sister treading almost on its heels, shows no sign of relin-quishing its leadership in social and financial aid to the church and parish.

The Men's League, The Men's league might be called the silent partner of these two women's organizations, except for the fact that it provides the channel for much of the talk that goes into and out of the parsonage; the telephone being its most apparent sift to our common welfare. apparent gift to our common welfare. This organization has a habit of coming to life whenever it is needed for special service, and any interested in witnessing such a resurrection should see to it that the demand is created without delay.

Ruddy Cheeks-Sparkling Eyes-Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohlo Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel aliments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their citive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter that one's system collects.

If you have a pals face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongus, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women, as well as men, take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets now and then just to keep in the pink of condition.

The Home Missionary society, according to its custom, spread its ministry over the wide home field of missions, aiding in the rebuilding of the school at Grandview, Tenn., which suffered loss by fire; contributing $50 to the school at Lynn for mountain whites, and preparing and sending the annual box to a frontier minister's family. In connection with this last, two sewing meetings were held to prepare the articles, with the usual supper following each. From the family to which this box went comes back this word of appreciation: "There were so many of the best, warmest articles that the winter will seem much easier." condition.

Another of the altruistic ministries of our church is represented in the auxiliary to the Woman's Board of Missions, which has met each month, except in the summer, keeping the glow of the spreading of the good ildings in the heart by studying the book The Child in the Midst, hearing reports from the branch meetings, the change was made to facilitate the keeping of the accounts.

Roll Call.

The roll was then called by the pastor and there were a large number of responses and a number of letters were read from absent members who were unable to be present.

The committee of ladies in charge of the supper was as follows: Mrs. William T. Wade, chairman, Miss Nancy E. Lucas, Mrs. John H. Sherman, Mrs. Tefft, Mrs. Herbert R. Kind, Mrs. Robert H. Breckenridge, Miss Annie R. Case, Miss Ione Haviland, Mrs. Chauncey A. Sherman and Mrs. H. D. The annual pledge of $105, for the work of the Woman's Board, was met as usual. The Sunday School has enjoyed an unusually prosperous year under the faithful and able guidance of Mr. Peale, the acting executive officer, who has just been elevated to the superintendency of the school. The 42 sessions of 1915 had an average attendance of 146, with 11 members present every Sunday, and one class having all its members present 21 Sundays. INJUNCTION SUIT AGAINST

New York, Jan. 13.—Alleging that George Klein and other holders of com-mon stock of the General Film com-pany have distributed among them-selves more than $2,000,000 as profits As to the church proper: The average attendance at morning worship in 1915 was 131; at the evening service, 33, with three special union services which brought out 400, 225 and 200, respectively. This is about 10 per cent, under the morning attendance for 1914 and 25 per cent, below that in 1913, The evening attendance is about the same as in 1914, but 17 per cent, below that of 1913. in pursuance of a general policy of wastefulness, Richard A. The accessions to membership, already given by the clerk, while fewer in number than in other years, were notable in this—that all were on confession of faith, and all were adults. The losses of the year have been unusually large and severe, taking from us some of our most active and helpful members. Four of our young people—Mr. and Mrs. Noah Lucas, Miss Florence Pardy and Mrs. Kenneth Muirare still members of the church militant, though no longer of our number. Seven of our church family have joined the church triumphant, four in the morning of life—Miss Gertrude Allen, Miss Ethel Worth, Mrs. Aubrey Jarvis and Arthur Lathrop; and three who were nearer the sunset—Mrs. Johanna Asplund, Mrs. Henrietta Korn and Mrs.
